

Kids with Character

This month's Kid With Character has been described as outstanding and someone who always goes above and beyond in the classroom. Twelve-year-old Catherine Woods from Sheffield Middle School was nominated by her teacher, Kathleen Busse.

"Catherine is helpful to her peers in the academic and after-school environment and is always willing to help others, Busse said. Pleasant, respectful and honest is an everyday way of life for Catherine."

As a member of St. Theresa's church in the youth organization, Catherine helps serve the communities needs. She also volunteers and runs the athletic snack stand at Sheffield Middle School, helps with the volleyball team, is an office aid and a member of both the Home Economics club and Student Council.

"Catherine is an outstanding example of what positive attributes we as educators would like our students to possess," Busse said.

Catherine lives with her parents, Jim and Andrea Woods and siblings, Elizabeth, Becky, Gabrielle and James.

Catherine

This recognition showcases students who have made a difference by accepting responsibility, showing kindness, valuing others' concerns, helping resolve conflicts and honoring their commitments.
