Who is your favorite Author and why?

Roald Dahl because he is very fun and creative, he has so many great books to read.

What genre do you prefer to read?

Realistic fiction because I love reading books that I can relate to you.

Where do you learn about books you might want to read in the future?

At my school.

Where do you like to read best?

My bedroom because it is very quiet and no one can bother me.

When is your favorite time of the day to read and why??

In the middle of the day because my brothers will be at practice and it is quiet.

The Secret Hum of a Daisy, by Tracy Holczer, is a book about a relationship between a girl, Grace, and her grandmother. Grace's life is now about to change. Grace has heard things about her grandmother which makes her not like her. This book is amazing to read and it sweeps me away.

Grace is just an average girl who's life changes. Grace and her mom had a very strong relationship. After her mother's sudden death, life goes on. Grace now has to live with her grandma who she dislikes and has never met. As Grace's life goes on she notices signs and dreams that remind her of her mother. Grace thinks these signs will take her to her true home.

This book is an interesting journey between finding her true home and getting along with her grandmother. I think this book is very strong since she dislikes her grandmother, who she hasn't ever met, and Grace's mother recently died. I would recommend this book to others who love an interesting twist in the book.
