Who is your favorite Author and why?

Nancy Drew because I like the way she explains things.

What genre do you prefer to read?

I like to read mystery books.

Where do you learn about books you might want to read in the future?

On the internet.

Where do you like to read best?

In my room where it is silent.

When is your favorite time of the day to read and why?

At night because it helps me fall asleep.

The Secret In The Old Lace by Nancy Drew is a thrilling mystery. Nancy just got done finishing a mystery for a magazine company. She set down her article on the table, then she could not find it and she looked everywhere. Bess said not to worry about it. A couple days later, at night, someone came to Nancy's window. She hurried up, got out of bed and went to her mother and father's room.

The next day Nancy and Ned were driving, they made a wrong turn. They were at a construction sight on a bridge. A car has been following them for a couple minutes. Nancy and Ned get scared when a person comes up next to their car, and Ned starts rolling up the windows. A person grabbed Nancy and told her to get out of the car. They both get pulled out of the car. Then the people start destroying the car. Soon they were freed and called the cops.

I liked the book, however, I think that additional information was added that we did not need for the story. The book was easy to understand but some of the language was difficult to understand.
