Who is your favorite Author and why?

Dr. Seuss, he is the best and he writes the best books.

What genre do you prefer to read?

Non Fiction, it tells facts.

Where do you like to read best?

School.

When is your favorite time of the day to read and why?

Night time, it's good for your brain.

The book starts at the fair when Babe is won at the fair by Farmer Hogget. Farmer Hoggett is a sheep farmer and planned to raise Babe to be Christmas dinner. One day, Fly, a sheep dog on the farm, came to Babe and wants to teach Babe how to herd sheep. Babe is successful and becomes a sheep herding pig. While herding one day, Maa, a sheep, got sick and came to the barn. Maa told Babe that sheep are not stupid as Fly says. Babe promised Maa he would visit her in the field. When Babe went to visit Maa he saw rustlers taking and stealing the sheep. Babe herds the sheep up and saves them. You will have to read this book to find out what happens.

I like the book but the ending was better than the beginning. I like how short the book is, you can read it in a day. I disliked this book because it is old and outdated, but I love the drawings of the animals. I think the book was an easy read. I recommend this book for second to sixth graders and anyone who likes pigs!
