Who is your favorite Author and why?

My favorite author is John Green because I like the way he explains things in his books. Also, all of his books have a good story and meaning behind them.

What genre do you prefer to read?

I prefer realistic fiction because I like that it can be made up and I like that fictional stories can give you the creativity to write whatever you want.

Where do you learn about books you might want to read in the future?

I learn about books mainly at my school. There are people constantly recommending books and a library full of books to choose from!

Where do you like to read best?

On a chair in my living room. There is a lamp nearby which gives off a perfect amount of light and the chair is very comfy.

I can honestly say that this is one of the best books I have read in a long time. This wonderfully written book has a lot of meaning and will leave you thinking about the book. It is a story about a girl, Sal, whose mother disappeared. She is on a journey with her grandparents to Lewiston, Idaho to find her mother and bring her home. Along the way, she tells the story of Phoebe Winterbottom, whose mother has also disappeared. While telling the story, Sal thinks of her own story, her mother, and her life before her mother disappeared. I absolutely love this book and recommend it to anybody who loves a good book in grades fifth through ninth, but you could be older and still enjoy it! So, if you're looking for a good book, Walk Two Moons is a great choice for you!
